

Learn more about Virginia's Equine Liability Act limiting liability for inherent dangers associated with equine related activities. This seminar will analyze Virginia's Act, summarize its major components, and examine recent court decisions from across the country.

You will learn:

- Specifics of the Act, how it is applied and what it covers;
- Rights you may have;
- Responsibilities you may have.

Faculty: Kelly LaPar, Esq.

Ms. LaPar is a member of the Business & Professional Litigation team, and its Construction Litigation and Equine Law industry practice groups. Her equine law practice provides comprehensive representation for all equine related needs. She is the primary author of Horse Law Lines at <http://horselawblog.com>.

August 13, 2009
Salem Church Library
7:00 PM - OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
2607 Salem Church Road -
Fredericksburg, VA
Reservations requested

Sponsored by

www.vadaf.org

SANDS ANDERSON MARKS & MILLER

www.SandsAnderson.com

801 E. Main Street, Post Office Box 1998, Richmond, Va. 23218-1998
(804) 648-1636, Fax: (804) 783-7291

TRUST OUR ATTORNEYS TO MAKE YOUR POINT.