Stefan Calos provides congenial counsel and steadfast support to businesses and their executives.

He joined Sands Anderson in 2005. He's a shareholder and member of the firm's Business, Litigation, and Government Groups. Stefan understands the importance of versatility and adaptability when helping navigate each client's legal needs.

With decades of broad experience, Stefan brings in-depth knowledge to complex litigation and business matters. By anticipating and addressing potential issues up front, he helps clients avoid future litigation. At every step, he remains accessible and helps clients find time- and money- saving solutions so they can look ahead with confidence.

Stefan helps clients soundly navigate contracts and related transactions. His extensive courtroom experience has honed his analytical skills. He has built long-term relationships with clients by representing them with wisdom and care.

Stefan represented the firm as the Hopewell City Attorney. Flexible and mobile, Stefan serves the Tri-Cities (Hopewell, Petersburg, and Colonial Heights) and other communities across central and southern Virginia.
