COUNSEL

PRACTICES

Professional Liability Defense · Product Liability · Privately Held & Small Business · Professional Services · Insurance · Commercial Transportation

Matthew Green offers his clients a deep understanding of Virginia Law. He frequently serves as a trusted advisor to in-house attorneys, state agencies, manufacturers, developers, insurers, and more.

Matt's familiarity with the reputations of specific courts and jury pools enables him to judiciously navigate localized legal outcomes with seasoned perspectives. In every step, his goal is to provide the thorough support that helps his clients come out ahead.

In addition to his jury trial experience, Matt has successfully resolved a variety of alternative disputes so that you can focus on your mission. He is also well-versed in the uniquely accelerated litigation approach of the Eastern District of Virginia's "rocket docket."

Matt applies his thorough and wise legal insight to help resolve suits that include embezzlement, malpractice, and catastrophic injury. His experience equips him to arbitrate matters in the International Centre for Dispute Resolution and to efficiently litigate breach of contract cases. Persistent and driven, he enjoys applying his talents to help his clients gain coverage initially denied to them. Further, his personal injury-related capabilities include mediating multiple cases involving traumatic brain injury. Should clients seek legal guidance for product liability claims, he can foster successful outcomes, drawing from his diverse experience that includes recreational vehicles, tainted food claims, and more.

Prior to law school, Matt was a Small Business Advisor in the United States Peace Corps stationed in Honduras. He has also trekked across Central America, South America, Europe, and the Indian Subcontinent.
