ADMISSIONS

Virginia

Liz White joined Sands Anderson in 2017, bringing decades of experience and expertise assisting developers, landowners, investors, financial institutions, local governments and common interest communities.

Referred to as a “city attorney for private cities,” Liz helps master planned communities and condominiums develop, operate and thrive. When representing communities, she works closely with management and board members to understand the unique values and goals specific to each community.

By collaborating with other attorneys across the Sands Anderson community, Liz ensures each client gets the legal coverage they need. Whether seeking consultative guidance on employment issues, environmental regulations, or land use and zoning, Liz’s multi-disciplinary support ensures each client receives proactive and intelligent care. She advises her clients in a variety of land use matters including:

- Real estate acquisitions
- Financing
- Zoning and land use
- Property management
- Corporate guidance
- Community development authorities (CDA’s)
- Condominium conversions
- Formation of corporate entities
- Housing for Older Persons (HOPA)
- Compliance with state and federal Fair Housing Laws
- Commercial leases
- Easements, covenants, and restrictions
