

ASSOCIATE

Sean M. Hutson

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

SHutson@SandsAnderson.com

(804) 783-7292

Practices

Government

Litigation

Intellectual Property

Government Relations & Lobbying

Commercial Collections & Creditors Rights

White Collar Defense & Government
Investigations

Industries

Government

Privately Held & Small Business

EDUCATION

University of Richmond School of Law, J.D., 2018

Ohio University, M.A, Political
Science, 2010

Heidelberg University, B.A., Political
Science, 2009

ADMISSIONS

Virginia

Sean Hutson is a steadfast legal ally, collaborating with local governments, businesses, and individuals to address complex legal situations with thoughtful guidance.

Before joining Sands Anderson, Sean worked as a lobbyist and legislative aide on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C. Sean's personal and professional experiences span the United States and abroad, providing him with diverse perspectives to help guide others through difficult litigation.

While understanding that the legal process can often feel overwhelming, Sean fosters ease by thoroughly and creatively addressing each client's concerns and ideas. With experience supporting small, medium, and large entities in the private sector, he has an eye for new and efficient solutions.

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Consulted on Sands Anderson cases ranging from $100,000 to $85 million
- Lobbied for the American Motorcyclist Association
- Taught courses in American Politics and Political Economy at Heidelberg University in Tiffin, Ohio
- Served as a legislative aide in the U.S. Senate
- Studied at Nanjing University, Oxford University, and Indiana University

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Local Government Attorneys of Virginia

Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys